

ARCADIUS RALPH ASPENLEIDER

(April 19, 2024)

Arcadius "Ralph" Aspenleider, a longtime resident of Warminster, passed away on April 15, 2024 at the age of 86. He was born in Mykolaiv, Ukraine on November 3, 1937 to the late Andreas and the late Katerina Aspenleider. Ralph is the beloved husband of Adelaide "Heidi" Aspenleider; father of Susi Kokas and her husband Craig, Richard Aspenleider and his wife Kimberly, and Robert Aspenleider; Opa of Nikolaus and Jack; brother of the late Elfrieda and the late Irma; he is survived by a loving extended family and friends.

Ralph was graduate of La Salle University. He was employed in his early life as an accountant and auditor, and later used the barbering skills he'd picked up during his service in the United States Army to open Ralph's Barber Shop. After selling the business, never one to be idle, Ralph continued to use his skills as a barber, working in local shops. He was an active member of the Vereinigung Erzgebirge Club and in his free time enjoyed tennis, skiing, playing cards, travelling, and playing the accordion. Above all else, Ralph was a family man, adoring his wife, their children, and their grandchildren.

Family and friends are invited to Ralph's Life Celebration on Monday, April 22, 2024 from 11:00 A.M. until his Funeral Service begins at 12:00 P.M. at the Decker-Givnish Funeral Home, 216-York Road, Warminster, PA 18974. Interment will follow at St. John Neumann Cemetery.

Family services are entrusted to Decker-Givnish of Warminster, 1-800-GIVNISH. To share your own memories of Ralph with the family, please visit us at www.lifecelebration.com

Obituary published on Legacy.com by John R. Freed Funeral Home Inc AKA Freed-Givnish Funeral Home on Apr. 19, 2024.